

Problem – Cash Flow Rebalancing

Write a function that determines the minimum cash deposit amount required to move a portfolio back to its target weights, given the following pieces of information:

- a vector of current portfolio weights, w_{actual}
- a vector of target weights w_{target}